Mark your calendars for November 23, Sunday, after our worship service we will have our group fellowship.

Upcoming events this month:

- College and Youth fellowship
- Thanksgiving Sunday

Dia De Los Muertos

In our recent Halloween Party, we set up an ofrenda for the first time in honor of our loved ones that have passed. Some might ask "what is an ofrenda? ", an ofrenda is a traditional altar to honor the dead during the Mexican holiday Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) on November 1st to the 2nd. It is also believed that during Dia de los Muertos the spirits will visit the living world so the ofrenda welcomes them back. The food and water placed at the ofrenda will give nourishment to the traveling spirits.

We will have the ofrenda up until November 2. We encourage everyone to bring a picture or trinket that reminds you of that person.
